

ArmoCut™

AS42D0

The BisonLife AS42D0 HPPE Sleeve is engineered to deliver high cut resistance and superior arm protection in demanding industrial environments. Made from high-performance polyethylene (HPPE) fibers, it offers excellent durability, breathability, and flexibility for all-day comfort. The integrated thumbhole ensures a secure fit and prevents the sleeve from riding up during rigorous tasks, providing extended protection from the wrist to the upper arm.
